ALSO, Sue Batistini's delicious breads and granola bars will be at market this week.

Bulger Creek Farm Goat Cheese.

Turntime Farm (Ellerslie): Ground Beef

This market tends to be small but festive; folks shop while catching up with old friends, exchange recipe ideas, talk with the farmers and "Market Girl" chef, and stroll through the fields where all the produce is grown. We would be honored to be a part of your weekly good food grazing routine.

Pictures Of The Week

This is a new variety of lettuce we are growing called 'Salanova'. You have probably seen it on the market table or in your CSA share. Here it is glowing radiantly in the high tunnel just before harvest time.

These bundled 'Hakurei' Turnips look like plump marshmallows. Their flavors might contrast a bit but they are both sweet and roast well.
